

Monica and The Explosion - Punk Rock 'n' Roll

Monica and The Explosion is Monica Welander a punk rock 'n' roll artist and singer songwriter originally from Sweden.

Monica and The Explosion has been touring all around the world, as a solo artist or with band, this year she is touring Europe and UK with a band again (JP Morer - Drums, Eoin Page -Bass).

Monica and The Explosion is an engaging and energetic live act performing high tempo witty punk songs. The sound is best described as "jukebox punk" - acoustic rock 'n'roll with attitude.

The debut album was released in 2007, since then another three albums have been released all recorded in the UK with well established British punk rock musicians.

Reviews:

Punkonline Fanzine 6th Oct 2016: Monica and the Explosion – Less Frenetic "...The new acoustic album by Monica and the Explosion, albeit Monica Welander, is a real treat that demands your attention throughout and isn't content as some background music at a dinner party like some solo projects..."

Mark Chadderton in Vive le Rock, 2013 - Keep it Alive album review.
"Swedish singer-songwriter's third album is an acoustic delight."

Big Cheese Magazine, Sep 2010

"Monica Welander has some serious attitude but is cool as hell too. Armed with an acoustic guitar that she pounds the hell out of, this is acoustic punk at its most fiery and personal... Welander pulls off the Joan Jett, "I-don't-give-a-damn sort of sassiness without any hint of contrivance..."
